On Thursday, 9-28-72, we were assigned to follow-up on an anonymous telephone call which Captain Daniel Koprowski had received on Wednesday, 9-27-72, at 8:10pm. This anonymous call stated a Gene SIPPY, 10-5-16, our B. of I. #5730?, may be involved in this offense. We checked all our local records on Sippy and found he has not been in our State, apparntely since 1969, at least there is no record of it. Joliet State Prison, Illinois was checked. Sippy did serve a term for Theft of $57,000.00, but he has been released sometime in the past, on parole.

An Investigator named HAMILTON, of the Chicago Police Department, stated he will forward to us immediately, through the mail, a complete file on subject, Gene SIPPY. In checking local correspondence here we had on him, we attempted to locate a daughter, who was living in 1969, at North 25th Street. At that address, we located the building manager, who stated had married, last year and moved out to an address unknown. Also tried to locate a son, at 2834 North 22nd Street with negative results. He no longer resides there. Through questioning of neighbors, we learned that has a married name now of , and she resides at South Alabama, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. She is employed by some unknown firm on the day shift, and we could not contact her during our tour of duty. We will do so tomorrow, if early shift is unable to do so tonight.

We also had twelve photos made up of suspect, Gene SIPPY for distribution among the men assigned to this homicide detail. Our day's activity disclosed no information that would involve Gene Sippy in the above listed homicide. Further investigation is pending.

Overland St., El Paso, Texas, invoice number 3067.

I then called the Monsen-Dunnegan-Ryan Company, area code 915 533-1621, at El Paso, Texas and I talked to a William GORE who is a wholesale buyer for the Monsen-Dunnegan-Ryan Company and he informed me this gun was shipped on July 19, 1956, their invoice #43064, to the City Gas & Electric Company, which also sells sporting goods, at Fort Sumner, New Mexico.

I then called Sheriff N.P. ROY, who is the sheriff at Fort Sumner, New Mexico. He informed me that the City Gas & Electric Company, which was formerly there, is no longer in business. That the operators of this store, a T.L. HUTCHINSON, di live there in Fort Sumner and his daughter Judith DIXON, also lived there, who formerly kept the books for her father. This information regarding this gun was given to Sheriff ROY and it was requested that he call us back, collect, and inform us if there records show when and to whom the gun was sold to, in an attempt to trace this gun. This gun, holster and bullets were then placed on Police inventory #373803.

He again stated he does not know of anything wrong that Metzow might doing or whether there would be any kind of connection between Metzow and Louis Fazio's death.

A check of our B of I reveals that Metzow has a substantial police record. The record is as follows: Gilman Charles METZOW, W/M, bm 1-22-32, B of I #61933, subject is 6'4", 154, slim, has the nickname of "Big Feet". He has a substantial record for drunk and disorderly, vagrancy, disorderly, resisting arrest, assault and battery, drunk, battery, burglary and assault to rob. The last arrest was August 2, 1971, which was a drunk arrest. His address at that time was 2448 N. Kilbourn Avenue. Subject's employment is that of a seaman. The assault and robbery charge took place on October 21, 1952, at which time, he received a 1 to 2 year sentence at Green Bay Reformatory in Wisconsin. This is the only information that we have on Gilman Metzow, at this time.

Address where offense occurred: (Rear of) 2805 North Humboldt Avenue Date of Offense Wednesday, 9-27-72

Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

On Monday, 10/2/72, we were instructed by Lt. Roy Bachmann of the Day Shift, heading the Murder investigation of Louis Fazio, to interview the nephew of the victim, Ray SUMINSKI, who is a bartender at the Iron Horse Tavern, located on W. Wells St. Mr. Suminski forwarded information to our Department that a white female, known only to him by the first name of Sandy, had called him at the Iron Horse Tavern on Wednesday, asking if the Police Investigators had found her name and telephone number on a piece of paper in Lou's wallet at the time of his death. Sandy related to Mr. Suminski that she was concerned about her telephone number and name being found in the victim's wallet and did not want to become directly involved in anything concerning his death. The conversation consisted of Sandy telling Mr. Suminski that she would be going to the funeral and the conversation terminated shortly thereafter.

At 7:00pm, date, we stopped at the Iron Horse and interviewed the nephew, Ray Suminski, who stated that he did in fact receive such a telephone call from a Sandy. He stated that he did not know Sandy's last name, but that her telephone number was 871-2078 . Mr. Suminski further related that he has observed the girl, referred to as Sandy, frequent the bar on only 2 or 3 occassions and has known for a fact that his uncle, Louis Fazio, had taken her home on 1 or 2 occassions. He describes her as a bleached blond, fairly attractive, and young, who only became known to him by her visits to the tavern in the past few weeks while in the company of his uncle. Mr. Suminski could add nothing further except that his plans to open a service station had been post-poned due to the death of his uncle and he expected to be tending bar at this location for an undetermined length of time, until matters were settled.

Reported for: HIMSELF Address 2805 North Humboldt Avenue

Address where offense occurred: rear of 2805 North Humboldt Avenue Date of Offense September 27, 1972

Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

On this date, we were informed by Anthony FAZIO, the brother of the deceased, that a man worth looking up might be a person by the name of Tom CHIOLINI, or CHIOLINO. Mr. Fazio states that the only information he has that he could be contacted at a place called MAMA'S, which is located in Minoqua, Wisconsin. He states that this Chilini is noted for doing quite a bit of betting and he has visited Milwaukee on several ocassions with his brother, Louis. States the last time that he knows Chiolini was here visiting his brother, Louis was about one month ago at the Iron Horse Restaurant, located at 1100 West Wells Street.

Checked our Bureau of Identification, and the only thing we came up with was a Thomas James CHIOLINO, W/M, 1-29-30. He had one arrest in 1953 for Assault and Battery, which was dismissed. No further information on anyone with that name at this time.

Mr. Anthony Fazio states that that is the only information he had regarding Chiolini, and does not know if there is any connection at all between this Chiolini and the death of his brother, but he states that any information he is getting, or any body that he can think of, he is relating to our Department to be checked out at this time.

Checked with Lt. Engelhetsn of SAS, and they have a file on a Thomas Chiolino living at Rt. 1, Hwy. 70, Minoqua, regarding possible connection with burglars & prostitutes in Hurley, Wisconsin.

Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

On Friday, 10/6/72, I interviewed a Victoria Marie TROTTER, W/F, DOB 7/21/44, of 3070 N. 30 St., regarding the FAZIO Murder complaint. It was made known to us that Victoria TROTTER had formerly worked for Fazio's On Fifth, located at 634 N. 5 St., sometime in the year of 1970, aand had received a garnishment action there from her landlord. On this date, we talked to her regarding this garnishment which the papers were found in the home of Louis FAZIO at 2805 N. Humboldt Ave.. She was questioned regarding this and she told us that her landlord had served papers on her, but at the time she was working entirely off the tips because of being indebted to the Fazio's themselves. She was brought in to the warrant squad in our Detective Bureau on 14 parking warrants and also a commitment of $150.00 from the Milwaukee County Sheriff's Department. Photo and prints were taken of her at this time. She denies any knowledge of the Fazio killing. States that she is now separated from her husband, Hosie TROTTER and hasn't seen him for quite sometime. She was unable to give us any information as to why or who could have killed Louis FAZIO.

We went to the area of 15th and Oklahoma Ave., where I met with their informant, who wishes to remain anonymous, regarding some statements he had heard pertaining to the above offense. He admits that he is acquainted with some of the Italians of the East Side, and at one time, tended bar for Tommy Fish at a tavern called "Fish's Harbor". The information that this informant has supplied to Patrolmen Hacker and Kondrakiewicz is information that has been published in the newspapers and speculation picked up in various taverns in the city. This informant cannot give any definite information regarding the murder of Louis Fazio and it is very obvious that he wants to help in some way, but is in no position to, at this time. Mr. Tony Fazio had stated previously that in 1965, Mr. Rose was sentenced to the House of Correction for income tax evasion by the Federal government and wanted to do his time in the House of Correction with a minimum of effort and had contacted several people who had contacts at the House of Correction in an attempt to get a choice job at the House of Correction. Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

On Tuesday, Sept. 4, 1973, at approximately 1:00PM, we interviewed a W/F, of W. Bolivar St. stated that she lived in the Catholic Knights building from July of 1970 to July of 1971. Her husband, was in the Army for 2 years and was stationed in Indianapolis, Indiana, for the last 6 months and used to come home on the weekends. She stated that she knew Louis FAZIO, as she and her husband ate in his restaurant and also sat at the bar and had numerous drinks. She stated that he never made any advances to her and that he was very friendly with her. She stated that prior to December of 1971, for approximately 13 or 14 months, besides working in an office, she also worked as a waitress at the Mayfair Motel on Hwy 100, and she worked there from 5:00PM to 11:00PM, nights, and on Saturdays, all day, so she actually did not see that much of Mr. Fazio. She adds that in talking with Mr. Fazio, he was always mentioning his granddaughter and whenever his granddaughter was in the restaurant, he would take her around to show her to everyone because he was so proud of her. We asked her if she knew any of the bartenders and she stated that she only knew one who they called "Bob the drunk" and another called Asked if she knew she said yes she did know him, as her husband. had tended bar for him at the Ad Lib, for approximately six months in 1970, just before he was drafted into the Army. She stated that just prior to her getting the waitress job at the Mayfair Motel, she had applied for a waitress job at the Iron Horse Restaurant, 11th and Wells, and before they accepted her, she had secured the job at the Mayfair Motel, and that once she had that job, she did not want to quit just to take another. In fact, Mr. Louis Fazio asked her several times after that to quite the job at Mayfair and he would hire her at the Iron Horse but she would not. As far as attending any parties in the building, namely in the apartment of one she stated that she was never at any parties in the building. Nor did she or her husband ever have any party where they invited anyone into the building. I asked if she knew anyone else who lived in the building and she stated she knew the two Police personnel who were married to each other; she thought his name was Stewart or Stu and her name was an unusual one which began with a "Z". She knew their last name as "Honeck". She was never at any parties with the two of them or either one alone. She said they were very friendly toward her and her husband, but they never went out socially. I again asked her if she had been to any parties, particularly with Louis Fazio and she denied ever having attended any party with him. She stated that usually she came home late at night and most times, she would simply take a sandwich and go right up to her room. The only likely night for such an event would have been a Saturday night, and at those times, her husband was home, at which time, they would go downstairs and eat and then sit at the bar and have a few drinks. Mr. Fazio was friendly with them as he was friendly with everyone else who came into the restaurant. We asked her if she had any idea as to what happened to him and she stated, "No". We asked her if she had heard of any gambling going on in the place, or if she knew any of the gamblers and she stated that she did not. I asked her if she had heard any talk about gambling and she stated that she would be unable to understand if anyone was talking about gambling as she knows no words or phrases concerning gambling.

Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

On or about August 1, 1970, I moved into 1100 West Wells St., Apt. #1511. While living at that location, I would, on occasion, patronize the Iron Horse Restaurant and bar, located on the first floor of the building. One night, while eating there with my wife, Louis Fazio, whom we did not know at the time, introduced himself to us as the owner. From that time on, my wife and I would acknowledge his greetings, etc. if he was there when we entered or left the premises. Because we lived in the building, we would eat in the Restaurant several times a month or have carry-out orders to take to our apartment. At all times, Mr. Fazio was cordial in our presence. He was also aware that we both were employed by the Milwaukee Police Department. The only other people we knew there were the hostess (Marion), a bartender named Chuck, and the German cook, Gary. Some of the waitresses we knew on sight but cannot recall any of their names at this time.

On several occasions, while on duty walking beats #11 & #34, and also off duty, I would observe men by the names of Dr. Verdone (in the company of his wife, usually), Tony Macci, Joe LaMont, a man whose last name is DeGeorgio, and Louie Sangor frequent the Restaurant approximately 4-5 times a week - hours from 11:00 PM to closing. They would all be sitting with Louis Fazio in the Restaurant.

My acquaintance with Fazio was that of a casual nature and at no time did we socialize together, either at his place of business or my residence. I moved from the building on or about August 29, 1972.

On Friday, 8/10/73 at 10:00AM, myself in company with Det. Thomas Hultgren interviewed the following persons:

W/M, of E. Circle Rd., Nequon, Wisconsin. This interview took place at home. At this time, we showed him pictures of Frank Diesler, Frank's wife and a and asked him if he knew anyone on these pictures. He viewed the pictures for several minutes and then stated that he did not know anyone on the pictures. He indicated to us as to why we were here showing him this picture, and we just told him to look at the pictures at which time we would let him know. He again repeated that he did not know anyone in the pictures. We then asked him if he knew a Tom DiQuarto who has a pizza restaurant at 656 N. Washington Avenue in Cedarburg. He stated that he may have seen Tom once but right now he couldn't pick Tom out of five guys in a row. He wouldn't know which was Tom DiQuarto. He did state that he has known Thomas's father Sam DiQuarto for years as Sam did business with the at their store, buying cheese, meats, and etc. for his various pizza parlors. He again asked why we were there. We then informed him that the man in the picture Frank Diesler had implicated him, also known as and Tom DiQuarto in the murder of Louie Fazio. We stated that Frank had told us that Tom DiQuarto and had set up the deal with Frank as Louie Fazio was suppose to have 15 to 20 thousand dollars on him from gambling money, and it was going to be a three-way split. We advised that the night of the actual murder, it was Frank Diesler and Tom DiQuarto and that Tom DiQuarto went and did the actual murder and the next day Tom DiQuarto gave Frank Dielser 15 hundred dollars, which was his share. was shocked and surprised that we would even associate him with such a thing. He said, "I should get involved in a murder for $5,000, you've got to be crazy." He said, "I don't even know Tom DiQuarto or this guy in the picture." We told him that Frank Diesler was involved in a janitorial service and also sold insurance and maybe he had come in contact with him in that way. He emphatically stated that he did not know him at all. We then asked him if he knew Tom DiQuarto and he stated, "he had to us all ready that he wouldn't know him if he saw him" and he said, "I would sure like to meet this Frank Diesler face to face because the guy must be goofy to implicate me." He said, "How come he is implicating people that run pizza restaurants." He then stated that he knows a lot of people but a lot more people know him as a lot of people come into his restaurant on East Brady Street, and this man could have been in there and saw him, but for any reason why Frank Diesler is involving him with Tom DiQuarto in this he has no idea. During our entire questioning of him and showing the picture initially, we watched his face and his eyes and at no time was there any sign of recognition while looking at the pictures or while telling him why this interview was taking place. We asked him if he had any dealing with Tom Diquarto and he again stated he did not know him. He knows that he is the younger son of Sam DiQuarto. We then told him that we would continue checking, but at this time we were sure he was in no way involved with the murder of Louie Fazio. We then asked him his opinion as to what happened to Louie Fazio, and he stated he must have done something wrong otherwise it wouldn't happen. We asked him to elaborate, and just said, "Hey, he did something wrong, you guys know the story. You do something wrong and you get hurt or hit." We left it at that.

From our personal observation, we are sure that also known as is not involved with the Louie Fazio murder or in any way involved with Tom DiQuarto and does not know Frank Diesler.

Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

On August 14, 1973, while we were at the Iron Horse Restaurant West, located at N. Lover's Lane and Blue Mound Roads, talking with the brother of the victim, Tony Fazio, he received a phone call at 3:00PM, from a person who refused to identify himself. This call was monitored by Det. Snead Carroll via an extenion phone. The caller stated that he had recently gotten out of the County Jail and that he had some information for Tony Fazio regarding the death of his brother, Louis. He stated that he knew who had killed his brother and the reason for killing him. Tony Fazio stated to the caller that there was a very large monetary reward for information about the person(s) responsible for the death of Louis Fazio and that he would be glad to talk to this caller. The anonymous caller then stated that he would meet Tony Fazio at the restaurant sometime that evening but stressed that he did not want any Police Officers at the meeting. Tony Fazio agreed to this condition and at 1:00AM, date, (8-15-73), a Person known to this Department as Keith Froemming, who is a known burglar and holdup man in the Milwaukee area, came into the Iron Horse Restaurant operated by Mr. Tony Fazio. This person sat down together with Mr. Fazio and stated that he had been in the County Jail recently and had overheard, in a conversation, that a Wayne Casper, also a prisoner in the County Jail, admitted that he had killed Louis Fazio, because Louis Fazio had been "fooling around" with his (Casper's) wife. He further stated that he had walked to the end of the Government Breakwater and thrown the murder weapon, a gun, into the water. Mr. Fazio attempted to get more information from Mr. Froemming but the only other information that he could get at that time, was that this story could be backed up by another person by the name of Richard DeBack, who was also on the tier at the time (at the County Jail).

Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

The information which Tony Fazio received from Keith Froemming, was relayed by telephone to Det. Lt. Roy Bachmann. On Wednesday, August 15, 1973, at approximately 9:30AM, Detectives Snead Carroll, Edward McHugh and Det. Lt. Roy Bachmann, went to the County Jail and had conversation with one Frank Deisler, who is incarcerated at 8 South. It is to be noted that Keith Froemming was in the 8 South Tier along with Mr. Deisler and Richard Deback. Deback is awaiting trial on burglary charges and Froemming is awaiting trial on armed robbery and burglary charges. Frank Deisler has, in the past, told several stories about information he had on who killed Louis Fazio and Detectives Adamczewski and Hultgren and Det. Lt. Tom Thelen investigated this end.

Our Department is in receipt of information from the Federal Bureau of Investigation that states, from an FBI Agent in their New York Office that Frank Deisler had previously received immunity for his testimony in the prosecution of numerous bank robbers and Post Office burglars in the eastern district of New York. The agent states that Deisler received complete immunity for his testimony and that of the eight individuals, including Deisler, who was involved in the bank robberies, all are either dead or serving prison sentences, with the exception of a Ronald Francis Samoray, FBI #461035C, who received a 20 year sentence, execution suspended, indicating that Samoray might have talked also. It is further noted that when Deisler initially furnished information to FBI Agents concerning the New York bank robberies, he falsely implicated two individuals who were not involved, because of a personal grudge he held against them, and it was only after independent investigation disclosed the true identities of the other unknown subjects in these bank robberies, did Deisler furnish correct information in that regard. It seems that Deisler may be trying to engage in similar maneuvers in the trouble he is in, in our city. This possibility was made known to Deisler, when we informed him we were aware of Ronald Francis Samoray, and he seemed visibly startled by our knowledge of his background of lies in previous cases. We showed him numerous pictures of known hoodlums in the Milwaukee area and he refused to identify anybody. Included in these pictures, was the photo of Walter Brooks, whose name he had mentioned several times before, when talking to other Detectives. Also shown to him, was a recent Color Polaroid picture of a person by the name of "Schafer", who he had claimed was involved with Walter Brac[illegible] and Louis Fazio, when he previously came to the Milwaukee area with stolen money orders. He (Deisler) stated that he did not know the individual in the picture and had never seen him before. However, this is the same Schafer who, he stated, worked for the Transport Co. This information was all taken to the District Attorney's Office and District Attorney E. Michael McCann stated that he is not willing to listen to this man any further; that on one other occasion Mr. McCann had received a letter from Frank Deisler stating that he had gotten information that Ben Sanders, recently convicted of murdering two Milwaukee Police Officers, admitted that he had killed these two Police Officers. It would seem that Mr. Deisler is trying to use important cases in the courts to gain recognition for himself in the matters pending against him. It is our conclusion that Frank Deisler is a liar and has no knowledge at all about Louis Fazio or the person(s) who killed him.

Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

I interviewed Anthony Fazio, brother of the deceased, and he states that on Thursday, March 15, 1973, he had occasion to go to the Center Stage Lounge, which is owned and operated by Mr. Frank Balistreri, to set up a party that was to be held on March 19, 1973, by the Restaurant Owners' Association. While there, Tony Fazio states that he talked with Frank Balistreri regarding his brother, Louis, who was shot and killed on September 27, 1972. Mr. Balistreri related to him that the reason that Louis got killed was that he talked too much to the wrong people. At this time, Mr. Tony Fazio did not delve into this statement too much, as Mr. Balistreri stated that at some later date, when they had time to sit down and talk, that he would talk with him and tell him about it. However, one name that came up during the conversation and seemed to be implied by Mr. Balistreri as one of the "wrong people", Louis Fazio had talked to, was that of Howard Meister. It is known that sometime in the past, Howard Meister, supposedly living at the present time in Honolulu, Hawaii, was on very friendly terms with Sally Papia, who runs Sally's Restaurant located in the Kaiser-Knickerbocker Hotel on E. Juneau Ave., Milwaukee. Another thing that was mentioned in the conversation with Mr. Balistreri is that no one seemed to care about how much money he lost while he was in prison at Sandstone, Minnesota, on a Federal charge that he served time for. Mr. Balistreri seemed as if he were quite peeved with the other people of Italian origin who were here, in Milwaukee, at that time, and claims that he was cheated out of a lot of money, that if he had not been in prison at the time, that he could have had half ownership in a tuna boat. Mr. Fazio believes that Mr. Balistreri was referring to the large tuna boat that is owned by Andrew Lococo, a former Milwaukeean, now residing somewhere in California.

Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

Mr. Fazio states that he will try to set up another meeting with Mr. Frank Balistreri to see if he can give him more information as to the possible reason his brother, Louis, was killed and if he did talk too much to the "wrong people", to find out what he did say and to whom it was said that might have caused his death. Investigation is pending at this time, until further information is obtained by Mr. Anthony Fazio.

One more thing brought up in the conversation between Mr. Fazio and Mr. Balistreri, was a statement by Mr. Frank Balistreri that he was not particularly happy with the way Jimmy Fazio, who is the owner and operator of Jimmy's House of Prime Ribs, in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, was acting there, when he went down to Florida to see him. Mr. Balistreri did not elaborate on this to Tony Fazio or what he meant by the statement. Also, Mr. Balistreri inferred to Tony Fazio that he should ask his brother, Angelo Fazio, for more details on this, and indicated that Angelo possibly knows more than he is telling his brothers or the police.

Explain in detail what work was done on the case:

On October 16, 1972, I traveled to Rockford, Illinois and went to the Winnebago County Illinois, Sheriff's Department, where I recovered 2 revolvers, which had been recovered by them in the arrest of a Barthaged GRANT, N/M, DOB: 9-13-47, of 2024 N. 6th St. and a Jerry NORTH, N/M, DOB: 3-6-53, of 3747 N. 26th St., Milwaukee, and Charles Crawford SMITH, N/M, DOB: 6-16-36, of 3022 N. 11th St., Milwaukee. These three subjects were arrested by their car when it was stopped by Sheriff's Deputies on October 11, 1972 and in the arrest, they recovered a Colt Police Positive, from under the where their car had been stopped by Sheriff's Deputies. These two guns were turned over to me by Detectives MAYBORNE & MICKELS Winnebago County Sheriff's Department, for the purpose of sending these weapons to the F.B.I. laboratory to determine if they fired the fatal bullets in the Louis FAZIO case. The Colt Diamond Back, serial was definitely not involved in the shooting of Louis FAZIO as it was in our Police Property Bureau under inventory #363497 at the time that Louis FAZIO was slain; however, the Colt Police Positive, serial which is on our inventory now of 373957, will be sent to the F.B.I. for comparison wit the three slugs that were taken from Louis FAZIO's body.

Explain in detail what work was done on the case: On Friday, October 6, 1972, at 7:30P.M., Detective Lieutenant Carl Ruscitti received an anonymous call from an unknown individual at extension 302. The caller stated the following to Lt. Ruscitti. "If you want the answers to the Louis Fazio murder, go to the Highway Inn, in Kenosha." Lt. Ruscitti questioned the caller if this Highway Inn he was referring to was a bar and restaurant combination. The caller then replied in the affirmative. The caller also stated that the answers also stated that the answers also lie with the man Joe Farina. At this time the anonymous caller who had placed this call to Lt. Ruscitti terminated his conversation and hung up.

On Tuesday, October 10, 1972, Detective Lieutenant Ruscitti, and Detectives Henning and Schreiber, went to the Racine Police Department and contacted the Detective John Ernst. At that time we questioned Detective Ernst if he knew of any such restaurant by the name of, The Highway Inn. He stated that to the best of his recollection, he knew of no such restaurant by that name. We also contacted Detective Lee, at the Kenosha Sheriffs Department. He stated that he knew of no Highway Inn in the County of Kenosha, but stated that it could be possible that the restaurant could have been called that previously but was with a new name at the present time. He stated that he knew of no such restaurant of this name at this time. We then went to the Kenosha City Police Department where we talked to a Lt. Schorn. Lt. Schorn informed us that there was a restaurant by the name of The Highway Restaurant, located at 2021 Sheridan Road, Zion, Illinois. He informed us that this was right at the state line on Highway 32, which is also Sheridan Road. He also stated that there were two other restaurants that the anonymous caller that had called Lt. We then, in the company of Detective Ernst from the Racine Police Department, went to these aforementioned restaurants and interviewed different parties in these restaurants and were informed by them that they had no recollection of knowing, or hearing of the Louis Fazio murder, and that they had no knowledge or information in regards to this offense. Upon observing these restaurants and people we have come to the conclusion that none of these restaurants that Lt. Schorn of the Kenosha of City Police named to us would be involved, or could be considered the restaurant that the anonymous caller was referring to.

It is our belief that the anonymous caller who placed this call gave erroneous information. That the subject is possibly a crank caller and that this call was a prank call which was made to Lt. Ruscitti. As the checking of these restaurants and coming up with no such name as the Highway Inn, we feel that the caller gave information which is misleading and is in no way connected to the Louis Fazio offense. The anonymous caller also mentioned the name of Joe Farina, and that he had something to do with this.
